Railways track blown up near Mach

Source

QUETTA: Railway link between Balochistan and three other provinces was cut off on Sunday after attackers blew up the track near the Mach area of Bolan district in the morning. Security officials said unidentified men planted an explosive device at the railway track between Mach and the Hirak area and blew it up by remote control. "A big portion of the railway track was destroyed by the impact of the blast," security officials said, adding that Rawalpindi-bound Jaffar Express coming from Quetta had to be stopped at Kolpur station after the incident. Other passenger trains coming from Karachi, Lahore and Rawalpindi to Quetta were also stopped at different stations. Railway officials, while confirming the blast, said engineers and other staff had...

UN Security Council To Hold First Meeting On Tigray: Diplomats

Source

BARRON'S

The UN Security Council will on Tuesday hold its first meeting on the conflict in Ethiopia's dissident Tigray region, diplomatic sources said. The virtual meeting will not be open to the public and it was not yet clear if a statement would be issued afterward, the sources said on Monday. Ethiopia's Prime Minister Abiy Ahmed has ordered the leaders of the northern region of Tigray to surrender ahead of a threatened all-out assault on its capital, Mekele. Abiy launched the military campaign against the Tigray People's Liberation Front (TPLF) on November 4, accusing it of attacking two federal military camps in the region, and of seeking to destabilise his government. Hundreds of people are reported to have been killed, but a communications blackout...
