At least four injured in blast in Balochistan's Turbat

At least four people were injured in an explosion in Turbat's Cinema bazaar in Balochistan on Sunday, police officials said. The injured were shifted to District Headquarters Hospital, Turbat for medical treatment while police and Frontier Corps (FC) personnel cordoned off the area and started investigations. The attack is believed to have been carried out by militants seeking to target an FC check post, a police official told Dawn.com. The attack comes less than three months after a soldier of Pakistan Army embraced martyrdom and three others suffered injuries in an attack on a patrolling party of security forces near the Jhaki post in Turbat. The terrorists had opened fire on the security forces' patrolling party some 35km southeast of Turbat...

Iraqi Counter-Terror Forces Arrest ISIS Militant in Kirkuk

On Sunday, Iraqi Counter-Terrorism Services (ICTS) announced the arrest of an ISIS-affiliated militant in an operation in Kirkuk. The operation was conducted with collaboration from the Iraqi National Intelligence Service (INIS). "The Monitoring and Investigation Unit of the CTS also dismantled an explosive device planted by ISIS terrorist gangs to target a military convoy of the Iraqi security forces," said Yehia Rasool, spokesperson for PM Mustafa al-Kadhimi as the commander-in-chief of Iraq's armed forces. A spokesperson for the coalition against ISIS commended the Iraqi Security Forces (ISF) in a tweet and said, "The ISF continues to operate independently to ensure the enduring defeat of ISIS."

Terrorist Designation of Ansarallah in Yemen

The Department of State will notify Congress of my intent to designate Ansarallah – sometimes referred to as the Houthis – as a Foreign Terrorist Organization (FTO), under section 219 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, and as a Specially Designated Global Terrorist (SDGT) entity, pursuant to Executive Order 13224. I also intend to designate three of Ansarallah's leaders, Abdul Malik al-Houthi, Abd al-Khaliq Badr al-Din al-Houthi, and Abdullah Yahya al Hakim, as SDGTs. These designations will provide additional tools to confront terrorist activity and terrorism by Ansarallah, a deadly Iran-backed militia group in the Gulf region. The designations are intended to hold Ansarallah accountable for its terrorist acts, including cross-border attacks...
