Boko Haram kills 12 and abducts seven in a raid northeast Nigeria

Boko Haram militants on Sunday killed 12 people and abducted seven others in a raid on a village near the northeast Nigerian town of Chibok, local sources said. Chibok is the scene of the mass kidnapping of 276 schoolgirls in 2014 by Boko Haram which drew global outrage and international attention to the group. Fighters in six pickup trucks drove into Takulashi village on Sunday, 18 kilometers (12 miles) from Chibok, shooting residents and setting homes ablaze. "The terrorists killed 12 people, including two of our members who engaged them in a gunfight," Abwaku Kabu, the leader of a local government-backed militia said. Anti-jihadist militia members from Chibok mobilized in two trucks to defend the village but they were outnumbered by the
