Czech Republic becomes latest EU state to designate all of Hezbollah as a terrorist organisation

Source

The Czech Republic on Wednesday became the latest EU member to classify the whole of the Lebanese party Hezbollah as a terrorist organisation. The Czech Chamber of Deputies, the lower house of the Parliament in Prague, voted 63-7 to adopt the new motion calling for the designation of the Lebanese group. The resolution said Hezbollah, which has political and military branches, was "an indivisible whole and terrorist organisation that significantly destabilises the Middle East region and, through its global network, also threatens all democracies". The EU recognises Iran-backed Hezbollah's military group as a terrorist organisation but not its political faction. But the Czech Parliament's resolution "rejects the misleading division of this organisation
