Hodeidah .. Houthi intensive targeting of citizens' villages and farms

Today, Sunday, the Houthi coup militia intensified its targeting of citizens' villages and farms south of Hodeidah (western Yemen), and tried to target military sites as part of their escalating violations of the UN truce and ceasefire.

And local sources reported that the Houthi militia opened fire with their machine guns towards the village of Dakhnan and the neighboring communities in the south and southwest of the city of Al-Duraimi. In addition, mortar shells hit citizens' farms in Wadi Rumman, which extends to the outskirts of the district. The sources added that the bombing caused panic among the people, especially women and children... (Translated)

Arab Coalition Removes 157 Houthi Naval Mines From Red Sea

The Saudi-led Arab coalition has removed a naval mine placed in the south of the Red Sea by the Houthi militias on Saturday. The coalition said that 157 naval mines have been removed after being randomly deployed by the Iran-backed Houthis. The Houthi militia continues to threaten maritime navigation and global trade in the Bab al-Mandab strait and the southern Red Sea, the coalition said. Coalition Spokesperson Colonel Turki al-Maliki stressed that the terrorist Houthi militia continues to launch systematic and deliberate attacks targeting civilian objects and civilians in the Saudi Southern region. Earlier this week, the Coalition also successfully intercepted and destroyed two explosive-laden boats in the Red Sea...

Spokesman for International Coalition Confirms Success of Iraqi Security Forces in Fighting Terrorism

Spokesman for the International Coalition Col. Wayne Marotto confirmed that the Iraqi Security Forces have proven their success in fighting terrorism in cooperation with the Coalition Forces. He stressed that the ISIS gangs were defeated on the Iraqi ground after those gangs controlled large areas of up to 110,000 square kilometers, and imposed their control on nearly eight million people. Marotto pointed out that the number of the American forces is close to 3000 soldiers, and this number depends on the circumstances, noting that the repositioning of the international coalition forces in Iraq is caused by the handing over of some bases to the Iraqi side as a result of the success they have achieved.
