Armed group captures military base in northeast Nigeria | Conflict News

Source

Authorities troops and a whole bunch of residents have been pressured to flee after an armed group overran a city and captured a army base in northeast Nigeria's Borno state in an assault claimed by the ISIL (ISIS) group, safety sources stated. Machinegun-wielding fighters from the Islamic State West Africa Province (ISWAP) attacked the bottom within the city of Marte within the Lake Chad space in a single day on Friday into Saturday, two sources advised AFP information company. "The precedence now's to reclaim the bottom from the terrorists and an operation is beneath manner," one of many sources stated on Saturday. "We took a success from ISWAP terrorists. They raided the bottom in Marte after a fierce battle". The second supply stated the...

46 Pygmies killed in militia attack in eastern DRC

Source

Forty-six Pygmies have been massacred in eastern DRC's Ituri province by the notorious Allied Democratic Forces (ADF) militia, local sources said on Friday. "ADF rebels overran the village of Abembi" on Thursday, said Gili Gotabo, a local NGO leader. "Forty-six people died and two were wounded, all of them from the Pygmy community," he said. The province's interior minister, Adjio Gigi, confirmed the toll and also blamed the ADF, which has been accused of hundreds of killings in the past year. The attack took place in a local chieftdom called Walese Vonkutu, on Ituri's border with North Kivu province, the source said. Originating in the 1990s as a Ugandan Muslim rebel group, the ADF is the most notorious of more than 100 militias that plague eastern...

Four UN peacekeepers killed, five wounded in attack in Mali

Source

The peacekeepers' convoy was struck by an improvised explosive device (IED), and the troops then came under attack by unidentified gunmen in the vast Timbuktu region. A robust response by the peacekeepers forced the attackers to flee, and the wounded personnel were evacuated by helicopter, the UN Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in Mali (MINUSMA) said in a news release on Wednesday. The three peacekeepers who lost their lives were from Côte d'Ivoire. Attacks 'may constitute war crime'. UN Secretary-General António Guterres strongly condemned the attack and called on Malian authorities to bring the perpetrators to justice. In a statement issued by his spokesperson on Wednesday, the UN chief emphasized that..."

Peacekeepers under attack again in Mali, as one Egyptian blue helmet dies, another seriously injured

Source

An explosive device (IED) detonated under a truck that was part of a logistics convoy from the UN Stabilization Mission in the country, MINUSMA, at around 3pm in the vicinity of Tessalit, in the Kidal region, said the mission. "The Secretary-General expresses his deepest condolences to the bereaved family, as well as to the people and Government of Egypt", said the UN Spokesperson's office. "He wishes a speedy and full recovery to the injured peacekeeper." The Malian Government has been seeking to restore stability and rebuild following a series of setbacks since early 2012 that fractured the country, including a failed coup d'état, renewed fighting between Government forces and Tuareg rebels, and the short-lived seizure of its...

Interception, Destruction of (3) Bomb-Laden UAVs Launched by the Terrorist, Iran-Backed Houthi Militia From Hodeida Towards the Kingdom

Source

"Joint Coalition forces have successfully intercepted and destroyed this morning, Friday, (3) bomb-laden UAVs launched towards the Kingdom. These bomb-laden UAVs were launched by the terrorist, Iran-backed Houthi militia from (Hodeida) Governorate, and were intercepted and destroyed. The terrorist Houthi militia continues to violate the (Stockholm) Agreement, and use Hodeida Governorate as a launch site for hostile acts and terrorist attacks through launching ballistic missiles, bomb-laden UAVs and bomb-laden USVs, which represents a credible threat to regional and international security and undermines the political efforts of the (Stockholm) Agreement. The Joint Forces Command of the Coalition will continue to undertake..."

Tens of militants killed, wounded in Yemen's western Hudaydah

Source

(MENAFN) The Yemeni army announced Saturday that hundreds of Houthi insurgents were killed or injured in fights in the province of Al-Hudaydah in western Yemen. A military statement said the clashes broke out as the militants launched an assault on army bases in the Ad-Durayhimi district, south of Al-Hudaydah. The statement did not provide any specifics of the injuries among the government troops. There was no word on the argument from the Houthi party. Last week, the UN called on Yemen's fighting for power factions to avoid the military escalation in Al-Hudaydah and to abide by the truce deal signed in Sweden in 2018.

Al-Shabaab militant killed in US military Airstrike in Somalia

Source

One Al-Shabaab militant was killed and a compound belonging to the jihadist group was destroyed in an airstrike by the U.S. military. The U.S. Africa Command (AFRICOM) said the strike was conducted on Wednesday in the vicinity of Buulo Fulaay in southern Somalia. AFRICOM added that a preliminary assessment of the operation showed that no civilians were injured or killed. A commander of the Joint Task Force – Quartz operations said the operation showed the U.S. and its partners planned to leave no safe place for the jihadist group to hide. "This strike in Buulo Fulaay combined with recent strikes, shows our resolve and degrades al-Shabaab's ability to threaten Somalia and its neighbors," U.S. Air Force Maj. Gen. Dagvin Anderson said.

US designates Hasm, IS in Sinai as foreign terrorist organisations

Source

DAILY NEWS

EGYPT

The US has increased sanctions against "Harikat Souaid Misr" (The Arms of Egypt Movement), commonly known as the Hasm Movement, and designated the militant group as a foreign terrorist organisation. The Hasm Movement had previously been labelled a "Specially Designated Global Terrorist (SDGT)" in January 2018 for posing a significant risk of committing acts of terrorism, the US Department of State said in a Thursday statement. The US statement added that the country had also designated "Yahya Al-Sayyid Ibrahim Musa and Alaa Ali Mohammed Al-Samahi as SDGTs under Section 1(a)(ii)(B) of E.O. 13224 for being leaders of Hasm." Alaa Al-Samahi is believed to be the founder of the group, while Yahya Musa is believed to be a...

Iranian missiles land within 20 miles of ship, 100 miles from Nimitz strike group in Indian Ocean: officials

Source

EXCLUSIVE: Long-range missiles from Iran splashed down close to a commercial ship in the Indian Ocean Saturday and 100 miles from the Nimitz aircraft carrier strike group, Fox News has learned, in the latest example of rising tensions in the region. U.S. officials say at least one of the missiles landed 20 miles from the commercial vessel but refused to offer more specifics about the ship, citing privacy concerns. The officials requested anonymity to discuss sensitive intelligence. Iran tests missiles frequently. Senior U.S. military officials say 100 miles was a long way from the aircraft carrier USS Nimitz. Another source says these missiles did not cause alarm, and this was a fairly standard routine exercise. Twenty miles near a commercial...
