A landmine blast killed at least 2 people and injured several others on Tuesday in Mogadishu.

The explosion targeted Director-General of Immigration and Naturalization Directorate Mohamed Aden Koofi in KM 4 near hotel Afrik in the capital. The director-general escaped unscathed. No group has claimed responsibility for the attack but Al-Qaeda linked group Alshabab have conducted similar attacks in the past. On July this year, Somalia's military chief narrowly escaped death after a suicide attacker drove a bomb-laden car into a convoy in the capital Mogadishu. The al-Qaeda-linked al-Shabab group said it was behind that attack.
