Minibus attacked in Mali, 8 killed, 3 kids wounded

Source

Gunmen have killed eight people in central Mali, a local official and security ministry staffer said, in the latest violence to hit the war-torn Sahel state. Militants attacked a minibus Tuesday, the officials said, which was travelling between the towns of Bandiagara and Bankass in central Mali's volatile Mopti region, which is prone to frequent Takfiri attacks and ethnic killings. "Armed men opened fire on the minibus," a local government official told AFP on Wednesday, adding that eight people died, four escaped and eight were seriously wounded, three of them children. An official from Mali's security ministry, who also requested anonymity, confirmed the details of the attack and the death toll. The local government official, and a survivor

Landmine Kills 9 Troops In Northeast Nigeria

Source

At least nine Nigerian troops were killed when a military truck hit a landmine in jihadist-racked northeast Nigeria, two security sources told AFP Wednesday. The incident happened on Monday near the town of Malam Fatori on the border with Niger which houses a garrison of soldiers fighting insurgent groups, the sources, who asked not to be identified, told AFP. "We lost nine soldiers in the incident," said the first security source. The military convoy was transporting food from regional capital Maiduguri, 200 kilometres (130 miles) away, when the lead vehicle hit the explosive device, the second source said. The IS-aligned Islamic State West Africa Province (ISWAP) is dominant in the Lake Chad region including Malam Fatori where they have been l
