

Daily Report ٢٠

Terrorist Incidents

24
Hours

Sunday – 29 November 2020

8 incidents

60 deaths

28 injuries

Al-Shabaab Claims Responsibility for Attack on Gelato Divino Restaurant

Al-Shabaab claimed responsibility for the deadly terror attack on Gelato Divino restaurant in Mogadishu. The attack took place on Friday, November 27. It caused the deaths of at least eight people while injuring tens more with the figure expected to increase. On Saturday, November 28, the Al-Qaeda linked militia released a statement saying that its fighters executed the attack to perfection. Its statement on the attack was published by friendly media outlets. Gelato Divino restaurant is close to Halane Base Camp, which hosts the offices of African Union Mission in Somalia (AMISOM), as well as other international bodies.

Source

Mogadishu Port Manager Escapes Bomb Attack On His Vehicle

Mogadishu port manager Ahmed Mohamed has survived a bomb attack on his vehicle in Mogadishu. The manager was heading to work when IED suspected to have been planted on the roadside went off. Sources confirmed that the official escaped unhurt. In an interview with Dalsan TV, the port manager said his two bodyguards were injured they are receiving treatment at Keisane hospital. "Right now I'm at the job, but the bodyguards are receiving treatment. I thank god I escaped the landmine," he told Dalsan TV on the phone. Al-Qaeda linked group Alshabab have claimed responsibility for the attack via the internet saying the Port Manager narrowly escaped death. The attack comes less than 24 hours after a suicide bomber killed eight people who...

Source

Local Police Commander Killed in Gunmen Attack in Balkh

The incident happened in the city of Mazar-e-Sharif, the center of Balkh province. Amir Gul, a local police commander in Chintal district in Balkh, was killed in an attack by unknown gunmen in the city of Mazar, the center of the province, on Wednesday evening, police spokesman Adil Shah Adil said. "No one so far has been arrested over the shooting but efforts are underway to find the perpetrators," he said. No group including the Taliban has claimed responsibility for the attack.

Source

Four fighters of "Ahrar Al-Sharqiya" killed in car-bomb explosion at their checkpoint in rural Ras Al Ain

The Syrian Observatory for Human Rights has documented further fatalities as a result of the violent explosion in countryside of Ras al-Ain. The death toll rose to four fighters of "Ahrar Al-Sharqiya" faction, as a result of a car-bomb explosion at their checkpoint in the village of Tal al-Jib in the town of Mabrouka, west of Ras al-Ain in northern countryside of Hasakeh. SOHR activists said earlier that a car-bomb exploded at a checkpoint belonging to the Turkish-backed "Ahrar al-Sharqiya" faction in the village of Tal al-Jib in Mabrouka town, west of Ras al-Ain northern countryside of Hasaka province. According to Syrian Observatory sources, the explosion killed three people and injured five others. The death toll is expected to rise, as...

Source

Four soldiers were wounded by an explosive device, south of Kirkuk

Kirkuk (NINA) - A security source in Kirkuk Governorate announced that four soldiers were wounded when an explosive device exploded in the south of the governorate. The source said that an explosive device targeted a patrol belonging to the 45th Brigade / Iraqi Army near the village of Ali Saray in Daquq district, wounding four soldiers, who were taken to the hospital for treatment. / End

Source

Two Civilians Killed And Wounded When An Explosive Device Went Off South Of Mosul

Mosul (NINA) - A source in the Nineveh Police Command announced that an explosive device had exploded south of Mosul. The source told the National Iraqi News Agency (NINA) that "an explosive device exploded between the villages of Hassouna Bir and Ibn Shugidan in Shoura district, south of Mosul." He added, "The explosion targeted an agricultural vehicle, which resulted in the death of a civilian and the serious injury of its driver. He was taken to a nearby hospital for the accident." / End

Source

Sunday – 29 November 2020

Indonesia police hunt suspected militants after four killed on island

Source

Indonesia

Sulawesi

Deaths: 4

Injuries:
Not Specified

ISIS

JAKARTA (Reuters) - Police in Indonesia were on Saturday hunting suspected militants accused of killing four people said by rights groups to be Christians, beheading one and burning down their homes. Ten militants linked to a "terrorist" group beheaded one victim and slit the throats of the others on the island of Sulawesi on Friday, national police spokesman Awi Setiyono quoted a witness as saying. Indonesia, the world's biggest Muslim-majority country, has grappled with intermittent militant attacks recently. "This attack is another serious escalation against the Christian minority in Indonesia," Human Rights Watch researcher Andreas Harsono told Reuters. Gomar Gultom, the head of the Communion of Churches in Indonesia, said the victims...

Boko Haram Kills at Least 43 Farmworkers in Nigeria, Militia Says

Source

Nigeria

Koshobe

Deaths: 43

Injuries: 6

Boko Haram

MAIDUGURI, NIGERIA - Boko Haram fighters killed at least 43 farmworkers and injured six in rice fields near the northeast Nigerian city of Maiduguri on Saturday, anti-jihadist militia told AFP. The assailants tied up the agricultural workers and slit their throats in the village of Koshobe, the militia said. "We have recovered 43 dead bodies, all of them slaughtered, along with six others with serious injuries," said militia leader Babakura Kolo, who helped the survivors. "It is no doubt the handiwork of Boko Haram, who operate in the area and frequently attack farmers." The victims were laborers from Sokoto state in northwest Nigeria, roughly 1,000 kilometers (600 miles) away, who had traveled to the northeast to find work, said Ibrahim Liman, another...

Saudi-Led Coalition Bombs Yemen Houthi Rebel Sites After Aramco Attack

Source

Yemen

Sanaa, Amran

The Saudi-led military coalition in Yemen bombed rebel camps including in the capital Sanaa on Friday, witnesses and AFP correspondents said, days after the Houthis attacked an oil facility in Saudi Arabia. Several coalition air strikes targeted Houthi military camps in Sanaa, as well as the city of Amran north of the capital, and the western port region of Hodeida, the sources said. No casualties were immediately confirmed. "We woke up today to raids and the sound of large explosions that frightened the whole neighborhood," Abdelkarim al-Qudsi, a 41-year-old who lives in Al-Hafa, in the capital's east, told AFP. The Iran-backed Houthi rebels said Monday that they struck an oil facility in the Saudi city of Jeddah with a Quds-2 missile, in retaliation.

Libya's LNA Announces Arrest of 7 Al-Qaeda-Affiliated Terrorists

Source

Libya

Ubari

On Saturday, Spokesman for the Libyan National Army (LNA), Ahmed Al-Mismari, announced the arrest of seven militants affiliated to Al Qaeda terrorist group in the Islamic Maghreb (AQIM) and North Africa in Ubari region, southwestern Libya. In a statement, the spokesman said some units of the Special Operations forces affiliated to Tariq Bin Ziyad and the 116th Infantry Brigades launched a qualitative operation earlier today at Al-Taraqin Al-Sharib neighborhoods in the southwestern Libya, targeting hideouts of Al Qaeda terrorist organization in the Islamic Maghreb. He noted that LNA forces seized large quantities of ammunition, weapons and very important documents. The LNA spokesman stated that this operation comes within the

Self-training for terrorist purposes, an Italian citizen in a cell

Source

Italy

Cosentino

The man was in possession of various material relating to jihadist propaganda. The one conducted by the state police to identify an Italian citizen suspected of having carried out self-training activities with the aim of international terrorism has been called "Operation Mirage". This morning the man, who resides in Cosentino, was taken to prison as required by the order issued by the GIP of the Court of Catanzaro at the request of the Public Prosecutor's Office - District Anti-Mafia and Anti-Terrorism Directorate of Catanzaro. The investigation was launched after the report, acquired in the context of international collaboration, relating to the sharing, on a digital platform, in Arabic, of jihadist terrorism propaganda...

4 Terrorists Arrested In Hawija District Of Kirkuk

Source

Iraq

Hawija

Baghdad / NINA / - The Intelligence Agency of the Ministry of Interior announced the arrest of four ISIS terrorists in Hawija district. The agency stated in a statement that "based on intelligence information by the sources, the detachments of the Intelligence Agency represented by the Federal Police Intelligence Directorate were able to arrest four terrorists in separate areas of Hawija district within the Kirkuk governorate." It added, "The detainees worked within the so-called Hawija sector of the terrorist ISIS and participated in several terrorist operations against security forces and citizens before the liberation operations." And the agency added that "their statements were recorded and referred to the judiciary." / End

Daily Report

Terrorist Incidents

24
Hours

Sunday – 29 November 2020

2 Terrorists Arrested In Kirkuk

Source

Baghdad / NINA /- The intelligence agency has arrested two terrorists who support ISIS logistically in Kirkuk. An intelligence statement, which the National Iraqi News Agency (NINA) received a copy of, stated, "The detachments of the Federal Police Intelligence Agency arrested two terrorists wanted in accordance with the provisions of Article 4 terrorism for their affiliation with ISIS terrorist gangs after a tight ambush was set up for them in the village of Al-Suhail in the district of Daquq in the Kirkuk governorate." The statement indicated that through preliminary investigations with them, they confessed to providing logistical support, foodstuffs and communication devices to one of the terrorist detachments in Wadi Al-Shay, where legal...

Iraq

Al-Suhail

SOUTHERN AFRICA MOOT REGIONAL ACTION FOR MOZAMBIQUE UNREST

Source

Five presidents conferred for an extraordinary summit in the Botswana capital Gaborone from where they "directed the finalization of a comprehensive regional response" to the unrest in Mozambique. GABORONE - Leaders from southern African countries met for urgent security talks on Friday and agreed on a "regional response" to the Islamist insurgency ravaging parts of northern Mozambique. Five presidents conferred for an extraordinary summit in the Botswana capital Gaborone from where they "directed the finalization of a comprehensive regional response" to the unrest in Mozambique. They did not elaborate on what kind of response they were considering. Islamist militants terrorising the province for three years have in recent month...

Capital of Ethiopia's Tigray region under control of Ethiopian forces, says PM after intense bombardment

Source

Ethiopian National Defense Forces (ENDF) have taken control of Mekelle, the capital of the country's Tigray region, according to a tweet from Prime Minister Abiy Ahmed. The city was under fierce bombardment earlier on Saturday, a humanitarian source on the ground and eyewitnesses who have fled the city told CNN. Federal police will continue working to round up members of the Tigray People's Liberation Front (TPLF). Thousands of Northern Command officers held by the TPLF have now been released, according to Abiy. The airport, public institutions, the regional administration office and other critical facilities are under control of the ENDF. The prime minister thanked the people of Tigray and emphasized that the next critical task is working to...

UN calls for restraint after assassination of Iran's nuclear scientist

Source

On Saturday, Spokesman for the Libyan National Army (LNA), Ahmed Al-Mismari, announced the arrest of seven militants affiliated to Al Qaeda terrorist group in the Islamic Maghreb (AQIM) and North Africa in Ubari region, southwestern Libya. In a statement, the spokesman said some units of the Special Operations forces affiliated to Tariq Bin Ziyad and the 116th Infantry Brigades launched a qualitative operation earlier today at Al-Taraqin Al-Sharib neighborhoods in the southwestern Libya, targeting hideouts of Al Qaeda terrorist organization in the Islamic Maghreb. He noted that LNA forces seized large quantities of ammunition, weapons and very important documents. The LNA spokesman stated that this operation comes within the...

التحالف الإسلامي العسكري لمحاربة الإرهاب
ISLAMIC MILITARY COUNTER TERRORISM COALITION