

Daily Report

Terrorist Incidents

24
Hours

Wednesday – 28 October 2020

3 incidents

14 deaths

83 injuries

At least 7 dead, more than 120 injured after blast at religious school in Pakistani city of Peshawar

Source

Pakistan

Peshawar

Deaths: 7

Injuries: 60

Not Specified

Seven people have died and at least 123 more have been injured in a blast at a religious school on Tuesday in the northern Pakistani city of Peshawar, according to local authorities. Lady Reading Hospital spokesman, Mohammad Asim, told CNN there were children among the injured. The school is located on Peshawar's ring road, on the southern outskirts of the city. Peshawar's superintendent of police Waqar Azeem told CNN the blast occurred during the morning's first lecture. Rescue services and a bomb disposal squad are on site. Peshawar Police Chief Mohammad Ali Gandapur told CNN the cause of the explosion was an IED with 5-6 kilograms of explosives used in an abandoned bag at the religious seminary Jamia Zubairia madrasa.

Attack on Police Special Unit in Khost Ends, Gunmen Killed

Source

Afghanistan

Khost

Deaths: 2

Injuries: 23

Not Specified

An attack by seven gunmen, with three explosive-laden vehicles, at a police special unit compound in the eastern city of Khost, ended after nine hours, said the spokesman for Khost's governor, Talib Mangal. The spokesperson said all gunmen had been killed. Seven attackers were involved in the attack, according to officials. The attack started with a car bomb explosion and was followed by exchanges of gunfire between the attackers and security force members. Initial reports indicate that the attack left three people dead and over 30 others wounded. Two explosive-laden vehicles were prevented from detonating, governor Patman told reporters in an interview that was slightly interrupted by an explosion sound. The attack started at around 6 am local time.

Five killed in suspected al-Shabaab attack in Somalia's capital

Source

Somalia

Mogadishu

Deaths: 5

Injuries: Not Specified

Al Shabaab

Police said Tuesday that suspected al-Shabaab extremists killed a local government official and his companion in Somalia's capital before detonating a car bomb that killed three other people. The gunmen ambushed the city official and his female passenger in their car in eastern Mogadishu and shot them dead, said Omar Mohamed, a district police official. "The gunmen who we believe are linked with al-Shabaab... tried to escape using the vehicle of the assassinated official, while leaving their own car loaded with explosives near the scene of the attack," Mohamed said. "The vehicle they left behind detonated as security forces arrived to investigate, killing three more people and taking the overall casualties from this attack to five."

Interception, Destruction of Bomb-Laden UAV Launched by Terrorist, Iran-Backed Houthi Militia Toward the Kingdom

Source

Yemen

Not Specified

Statement by the Official Spokesman of the Coalition to Restore Legitimacy in Yemen COL Turki Al-Malki "Joint Coalition Forces have intercepted and destroyed this morning (Tuesday) a bomb-laden UAV launched systematically and deliberately by the terrorist Houthi militia to target civilians and civilian objects in the Southern Region."

Houthi minister shot and killed in Sanaa 'was victim of internal feud'

Source

Yemen

Jouf

... Meanwhile dozens of Houthi fighters, army troops and allied tribesmen have been killed in the past two days during fierce battles in the provinces of Sanaa, Jouf and Marib, local officers said on Tuesday.

Brig. Gen. Abdu Abdullah Majili, a Yemeni army spokesman, told Arab News that army troops backed by air support from coalition warplanes engaged in heavy fighting with Houthis in the Najed Al-Ateq region in Sanaa after rebels tried to seize a strategic military base.

"The national army and the tribesmen have foiled Houthi attacks and advanced on the ground," Majili said.

The Terrorist "Abu al-Hassan al-Kurdi" Killed In A Tight Ambush In Mandali Of Diyala Governorate

Source

Iraq

Diyala

Baghdad (NINA) - Detachments of the Intelligence Agency represented by the Diyala Intelligence Directorate announced the killing of the terrorist known as Abu Al-Hassan Al-Kurdi in Al-Hamid area within Mandali district of Diyala province. In a statement received by the National Iraqi News Agency / NINA / , the agency stated that the murdered terrorist was wanted in accordance with the provisions of Article 4 terrorism for belonging to ISIS terrorist gangs and participated in many terrorist operations in the districts of Fallujah, Hawija and Diyala Governorate. It added that the motorbike he was riding on, the Kalashnikov rifle, its ammunition and other logistical materials were seized. / End

Daily Report

Terrorist Incidents

24 Hours

Wednesday – 28 October 2020

Iraqi security forces arrest three 'terrorists' in Kirkuk

Source

Iraq

Kirkuk

Spokesman of Joint Operations Command Major General Tahsin al-Khafaji said the three "terrorists" were detained in a "specific operation" as they were caught in act. The three were responsible for planting explosive devices against police and security services in the province, Khafaji added. "The terrorists were responsible for more than 14 terrorist operations that took place in Kirkuk," he said. Iraqi forces have stepped up efforts to detain ISIS militants in the provinces of Kirkuk, Saladin, Anbar and Baghdad. The security forces have detained and killed dozens of ISIS members in the past weeks. Iraq declared victory over Islamic State in December 2017 but the militants have regrouped in the Hamrin mountain range which extends into...

A takfirist who was sentenced to 4 years imprisonment arrested in Ariana (Interior)

Source

Tunisia

Ariana

Tunis, October 27 (TAP) - The National Guard Research and Inspection Division in Al-Manhala and the Terrorism Prevention Department in Ariana managed to arrest a takfirist who resides in Al-Manhala, and an Interior Ministry statement added on Tuesday, that this element is inspected for the benefit of the court of first instance ... (Translated)

Saudi Press: Saudi Arabia rejects any attempt to link Islam with terrorism

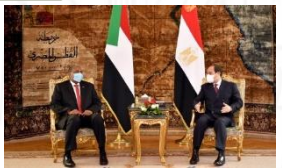

Source

Saudi newspapers highlighted in their editorials today a number of issues at local, regional and international arenas. Al-Yaum newspaper reported in its editorial that the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia rejects any attempt to link Islam with terrorism and condemns the offensive cartoons of the Prophet Muhammed (PBUH) or any of the Messengers peace be upon them. The paper added that Saudi Arabia calls for intellectual and cultural freedom based on respect, tolerance and peace that rejects practices and acts that generate hate, violence and extremism and violate the values of coexistence and mutual respect among peoples.

Egypt's Sisi, Sudan's Burhan stress commitment to GERD deal

Source

ahramonline

Egyptian President Abdel-Fattah El-Sisi and Chairman of Sudan's Sovereign Council Abdel-Fattah Al-Burhan stressed their countries' adherence to a binding deal over the filling and operation of the disputed Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam (GERD). El-Sisi held a meeting with Al-Burhan who arrived earlier on Tuesday in Cairo for a one-day visit. "The meeting saw discussions over the GERD, with a consensus reached over the water issue facing both countries, deeming it a national security issue," Presidency Spokesman Bassam Rady said. El-Sisi affirmed Egypt's support for the political leadership in Sudan in "shaping their country's future", welcoming all efforts aiming to aid Sudan in facing its economic crisis, and towards accomplishing...

الائتلاف الإسلامي العسكري لمحاربة الإرهاب
ISLAMIC MILITARY COUNTER TERRORISM COALITION