Terrorist Operations & Incidents Analysis

October 2020

Preamble

This report is prepared in compliance with the Situation Room and in response to the desire of the relative administration in the Center of the Islamic Military Counter Terrorism Coalition. This report aims to provide an analytical presentation of all terrorist operations and incidents that took place in the world during the past month and which news was published in all international, regional, and local news agencies. It was collected through open sources, as it was daily monitored in news sources, and further investigated.

The content of the report is organized in three main topics: For each topic, a separate chapter is devoted. The first chapter begins with an analysis of terrorist operations and events, in which a descriptive and analytical approach is followed; it has been simplified into accurate informative and expressive diagrams that reflects the indicators related to statistics of incidents, casualties, targeted sectors, active terrorist organizations, geographical placement, methods of execution.

The second chapter deals with detailed information of terrorist events according to countries affected by terrorist attacks. As for the third chapter, it included all collected news of terrorist events each of which is represented by a single most accurate, credible, and comprehensive news including a link to the source and a QR code that enable access to the original news by smart phones.

Somalia: Al-Shabaab Claims Bomb Attack in Mogadishu

Al-Shabaab has claimed credit for a bomb attack carried out by a female suicide bomber in Mogadishu on Thursday morning. In a statement, Al-Shabaab said the blast left a senior spy boss and two of his security guards dead, a claim that neither denied nor confirmed by the Somali government. The explosion took place in the Black Sea area and was targeted undercover agents at a security checkpoint, according to sources.

3 killed, 7 wounded in car bomb in northern Syria: report

DAMASCUS, Oct. 4 (Xinhua) -- At least three Turkey-backed police officers were killed and seven others wounded in a car bomb explosion in northern Syria, a war monitor reported on Sunday. The explosion ripped through a checkpoint of Turkey-backed police corps in the city of al-Bab in the northeastern countryside of Aleppo province on Saturday night, said the Syrian Observatory for Human Rights.

Eight Killed In Attack Targeting Afghan Governor

A suicide attack targeting an Afghan provincial governor killed at least eight people on October 5, officials said, as the president traveled to Qatar where peace talks with the Taliban have stalled. Twenty-eight people were wounded when the attacker rammed his explosives-filled vehicle into the convoy of Rahmatullah Yarmal, governor of eastern Laghman Province.

"The governor was driving to his office when his car was hit. Four of his bodyguards and four civilians were killed, 28 wounded," the governor's spokesman Assadullah Daulatzai told AFP, adding that the governor was unhurt.

1,300 Prisoners Escape From Congo Jail After an Attack Claimed by ISIS

Source: The New York Times

At least 1,300 prisoners escaped from a jail in the Democratic Republic of Congo early on Tuesday, the United Nations said, after an armed assault for which the Islamic State has claimed responsibility. A local official attributed the operation to an Islamist rebel group. But Amaq, the Islamic State's official news outlet, said that ISIS fighters had attacked a Congolese prison, citing a military source. The assault in Beni, in the country's northeast, targeted the Kangbayi central prison and the military camp defending it, the city's mayor, Modeste Bakwanamaha, told news agencies on Tuesday morning. The mayor said that just 100 of the prison's inmates, who had numbered more than 1,400, remained, though 20 others later returned.

Cameroon: Children killed in attack on school in Kumba

Gunmen have stormed a private school in a restive area of Cameroon killing at least six children and wounding a dozen others. Officials in the south-western city of Kumba blamed Anglophone secessionists for the attack. This has not been independently confirmed. A local education official said the victims were aged between 12 and 14. Parts of Cameroon have been gripped by unrest since Anglophone groups stepped up their push for independence in 2016. Some schools in Cameroon's Anglophone regions have recently reopened following a four-year shutdown due to threats from separatists fighting for an independent state of Ambazonia. Anglophone activists say the country's French-speaking majority is marginalising the English-speaking...

20 Killed by 'Bandits' in Northwest Nigeria

Source TheDefensePost

Gunmen stormed a village in northwest Nigeria killing 20 people in the latest attack by criminal gangs in the violence-wracked region, police said Wednesday. A gang of motorcycle-riding gunmen called "bandits" by locals shot residents in Tungar Kwana in the northern Zamfara state, police spokesman Mohammed Shehu said. Violence in Zamfara that began more than a decade ago with armed robbery and cattle rustling has spiraled into clashes over land and resources between ethnic Fulani herders and local farmers. Last week locals tipped security forces on the location of cattle thieves, Shehu said. "Since then the bandits have been targeting the villagers to avenge the killing of their comrades," the police spokesman added...

Police Kill Russian Teen After Molotov, Knife Attack

Source: The Moscow Times

Police in Russia's republic of Tatarstan have shot and killed a teenager after he attacked a police station with Molotov cocktails and injured one officer with a knife while calling the officers "enemies of Allah," authorities said Friday. Police said officers chased after the suspect who threw at least two Molotov cocktails at the station's parking lot shortly after midnight in the town of Kukmor. They opened fire after the suspect, identified only as a local resident born in 2004, drew a knife and wounded one of the officers, who is expected to recover. "It's true that he threatened to kill everyone. He shouted [at the officers] that they are enemies of Allah," the Tatarstan regional Interior Ministry's press service told the Daily Storm news website.

18 killed, 40 houses and church burned in Congo by suspected Islamic terrorists

Source: DISRN

At least 18 people were killed as well as 40 houses and a church were burned down in an overnight attack in the eastern Democratic Republic of the Congo on Wednesday. The attack happened in the remote village of Baeti. "The army was alerted but did not intervene," said Kinos Kathuho, the head of the local civil society. When asked for comment on the incident, a spokesman for the armed forces said it "cannot react to this nonsense." The Allied Democratic Forces (ADF) was blamed for the attack as they have killed nearly 600 civilians since November 2019.

Suspected Islamists kill 17 civilians in eastern Congo raid

Source: REUTERS

BENI, Congo (Reuters) - Assailants killed at least 17 people in a raid on a village in the east of the Democratic Republic of Congo on Friday night, local authorities said, blaming fighters from an Islamist militia group. The army confirmed the attack in the Buliki area of North Kivu province, but declined to give a death toll. The Allied Democratic Forces (ADF), a Ugandan armed group active in eastern Congo since the 1990s, has killed more than 1,000 civilians since the start of 2019, according to U.N. figures, despite repeated military campaigns to destroy it. Reprisal attacks against civilians have increased sharply since the army began an operation against the ADF a year ago, dislodging it from several bases near the Ugandan border.

Moroccan Prison Guard Killed by IS-Linked Inmate

Source: The Defense Post

A Moroccan prison guard was killed by an inmate who was in jail for belonging to a militant cell linked to the Islamic State group, prosecutors said Wednesday. The detainee on Tuesday "took captive an employee in his cell and assaulted him with a metal object" at Tiflet prison on the outskirts of the capital Rabat, they said in a statement. "A rapid intervention unit was deployed to free the employee" but the officer was declared dead of his injuries in hospital, it added. Three other prison staff were wounded in the incident. The fate of the inmate was not reported. The prosecutor's office said it had "ordered the judicial police to open a careful investigation to determine legal responsibility."
